

THE CALGARY HERALD

March 5th 1977

POSSIBLE NEW HOSPITAL IN CALGARY - LEAKED

While talking about the establishment of Kananaskis, Peter Lougheed also let slip of the possible development of a new hospital in the city of Calgary. Not much is known yet, but we are sure more information will come soon

- pg. 3

KANANASKIS ESTABLISHED

In a surprise move last evening, Peter Lougheed announced the creation of Kananaskis Provincial Park, in efforts to save the beautiful area. Calgary Herald reporters were quick to get an interview with the premier who said that "All it took was a helicopter ride to realize how beautiful this area really was, and I'm sure Albertans will agree!" This move will protect 4211 square kilometers of mountainous area, including native wildlife and plants.

